Gentlemen:

Referring to your interest in Numismatics. May we respectfully ask your attention to a rare item, which was privately issued by the Rowfant Club, and of which only 150 numbered examples were struck and the dies destroyed.

The 150 examples that were issued were issued only to the members of the Rowfant Club, and it is very seldom that one of these comes upon the market. In the recent purchase of the library of one of the members deceased, one of these examples was purchased, and we beg to submit quotation at the foot of this letter.

If of interest to you, may we be favored with your order?

Yours respectfully,

THE ARTHUR H. CLARK COMPANY.

HAY (JOHN) Medal; designed and executed by Victor D. Brenner. Obverse, bust of John Hay; reverse, female figure with globe of Americas and rolled chart of China coast line, lettered "Open Door in the Far East". Issued 1912. A beautifully executed bronze medal 3 inches in diameter, 3/16 inch thick, enclosed in morocco case, velvet and silk lined, with silk lift. 150 numbered examples were struck. $30.00.

One of the best examples of Brenner's beautiful work, struck at the United States Mint. Accompanied by the printed four-page, 4to, sheet, giving descriptive account of the medal with reproductions.

Handwritten notes and signatures at the bottom of the page, including "1912", "6", "6", "1", "2", "3", "4", "5", "6", "7", "8", "9", "10", "11", "12", "13", "14", "15", "16", "17", "18", "19", "20", "21", "22", "23", "24", "25", "26", "27", "28", "29", "30", "31", "32", "33", "34", "35", "36", "37", "38", "39", "40", "41", "42", "43", "44", "45", "46", "47", "48", "49", "50", "51", "52", "53", "54", "55", "56", "57", "58", "59", "60", "61", "62", "63", "64", "65", "66", "67", "68", "69", "70", "71", "72", "73", "74", "75", "76", "77", "78", "79", "80", "81", "82", "83", "84", "85", "86", "87", "88", "89", "90", "91", "92", "93", "94", "95", "96", "97", "98", "99", "100".
